
CONTENTS

Editorial Team	iv
In Memoriam: Andre van der Bijl (Phd)	vi
Editorial Joy Papier	vii
A ‘curriculum moment’ for Adult and Community Education and Training: Acknowledging the voices and experiential knowledge of lecturers and students at community learning sites Natheem Hendricks and Kaylianne Aploon-Zokufa	1
South Africa’s adult educators in the community college sector: Who they are and how they view their training, their work and their position Sandra Jane Land	16
Assessing work-based values: The missing link in improving youth employability Andrew Paterson, Roelien Herholdt, James Keivy and Bina Akoobhai	41
Knowledge, competencies and dispositions of lecturers in Technical Engineering in the context of advancing 4IR technologies Nixon JP Teis and Christo J Els	62
Why prisoners pursue adult education and training: Perceptions of prison instructors Tabitha Grace Mukeredzi	88
Enhancing technical and vocational knowledge and skills of adult learners in Ghanaian universities Yaw Owusu-Agyeman and Magda Fourie-Malherbe	106
TVET engineering students’ perceptions of the value of their qualification and the prospects of employment Anthony Tolika Sibiya, Nceba Nyembezi and David Bogopa	130
Promise and performance of gender mainstreaming at a Zimbabwean agricultural training college Sebastian Mutambisi, Manasa Madondo, Miidzo Mavesera and Phamela Dube	146
Contributor biographies	164
Editorial policy	168
Call for papers 2022: JOVACET, Volume 5, Issue 1	170
Call for papers for the special edition 2022: JOVACET, Volume 5, Issue 2	171