
CONTRIBUTOR BIOGRAPHIES

Ms René Bonzet

René Bonzet is a Research Fellow within the Faculty of Education at Stellenbosch University. She has been a TVET college staff member since 1986 and joined the Northlink College management team in 1998. Her MPhil degree on women in leadership in the Western Cape TVET sector showcases her extensive knowledge and experience.

Prof. Doria Daniels

Doria Daniels is a member of the Faculty of Education at Stellenbosch University. She holds a PhD in International and Intercultural Education from the University of Southern California. Her passion lies in understanding marginalised populations' experiences with educational access and inclusion. This NRF-rated researcher's research focuses on women's educational empowerment, gender in community history, and adult education and training for active citizenship.

Prof. Liezel Frick

Liezel Frick is an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Education at Stellenbosch University. Her research interests are broadly within the areas of higher, vocational and adult education. Her work in vocational education has a particular focus on leadership development within the TVET sector.

Ms Cari-Ann Roberts Gotta

Cari-Ann Roberts Gotta is an Instructor and Program Coordinator for the School of Academic Upgrading and Development at Selkirk College in Canada. She is a Master of Education: Adult Learning and Global Change Program graduate of the University of British Columbia and her academic interests are in literacy, language and culture.

Prof. Zelda Groener

Zelda Groener is an Associate Professor in the Institute for Post-School Studies, Faculty of Education of the University of the Western Cape (UWC), Cape Town. She coordinates a research project funded by the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET) and the European Union (EU) which focuses on access, barriers to participation and success in post-school education in South Africa. She also coordinates the Masters in Adult Learning and Global Change which is taught collaboratively with the University of British Columbia (UBC) and Linköping University.

Dr Liza Hamman

Liza Hamman is a Lecturer and Programme Manager at Boland TVET College. Her PhD focused on the potential of mindfulness as a critical and transformative learning approach for adult learners at the University of the Western Cape. She is also a certified mindfulness trainer and facilitator.

Dr Jacqueline Lück

Jacqueline Lück is Head of Applied Language Studies at Nelson Mandela University and Chairperson of the Faculty of Arts Teaching and Learning Committee. Her research interests are language and knowledge, ideology, identity, academic literacies and language policy. She is involved in the scholarship of teaching and learning projects institutionally and nationally.

Ms Akhona Magxaki

Akhona Magxaki is a Life Orientation Lecturer at the Eastcape Midlands TVET College. Her research interests are the impact of language on teaching and learning, curriculum development, policy planning and development, and e-learning.

Dr Ephraim Lemmy Nuwagaba

Ephraim Lemmy Nuwagaba is currently a Senior Lecturer at Kyambogo University, Uganda, and Vice-Chairperson of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Professional Environmentalists. He has previously worked as Head of Department, Adult and Community Education, as Programme Director of the National Adult Education Association of Uganda, and as founding Honorary Secretary of the Uganda Adult Education Network. He was trained at the University of Zambia, Makerere University and the University of KwaZulu-Natal.

Mr Emmy Hendrain Orech

Emmy Hendrain Orech is currently a Sign-Language Interpreter as well as an Examinations Coordinator in the Department of Special Needs Studies at Kyambogo University, Uganda. He enjoys teaching special needs and inclusive education aspects to both university students and community members. In the area of community service, he is an Assistant General Secretary of the Association of Special Needs Education Teachers of Uganda.

Prof. Emerita Shirley Walters

Shirley Walters has been Professor of Adult and Continuing Education and a scholar-activist at the University of the Western Cape, South Africa, since 1985. In July 2014, she became a Professor Emerita. She is President of the Pascal International Members Association (PIMA) and Vice-President (Africa) on the International Council for Adult Education (ICAE).